Besides the general teachings on the spiritual life, the Opus Angelorum has the special mission to promote the awareness of the powerful presence and help of the Holy Angels in our spiritual lives. Silent Retreats in Putnam, CT

In February of 2008, Pope Benedict XVI reaffirmed the importance of an annual retreat. A good retreat, according to the Pope, allows for “a strong experience of God, awakened by listening to his Word, understood and welcomed in one’s personal life, under the action of the Holy Spirit, which, in a climate of silence, prayer and by means of a spiritual guide, offer the capacity of discernment in order to purify the heart, convert one’s life, follow Christ and fulfil one’s own mission in the Church and in the world.”

The schedule includes Divine Office, Holy Mass, Adoration, the Rosary, Conferences, Stations of the Cross, time for private reflection, meals in silence, opportunity for Confession/spiritual direction. Thursday evening to Sunday lunch. Cost: Single: $250; Double/person: $220. Includes room and all meals. Voluntary donations for the retreat gratefully accepted.

Registration Form Only for the Silent Retreats in Putnam.
